CONGRESSMAN JOHNSON RAISES TROUBLE OVER HIS RESIGNATION.

Opposed to Paying Expenses of Anti-Anarchist Society Sanctioned by Washington Executive—Indignation Expressed by the Democratic Members—Action Refused by the Public Safety Committee—Pugnacious Speech.

Washington, D. C., July 1.—[Special.]—The chief which holds the family skeleton of the Confederate Constitution has again been rattled. Some one who did not know that the Confederates have been at rest and secure for a year past let the public into the secret. Rhetoric, as usual, appears as the corpse spirit of the commodity. The other day when he rose to defend Lynch and Cherry called the accusations of the Land Examining Board in half a dozen other localities in Washington. Some danger to the republican form dawned and a committee of three, of which Perry Belmont was a member, was raised to perform the work. This committee has had several meetings in New York. When Edgerton got back here it was found that the Commissioners had done something in the absence that was enough to set his ire against them at once. He at once denied the authority of what had been done, and objected to paying out of the appropriation for expenses of the commission of land boards recently established here for settlements, holding that the land boards are required for service in their respective localities, and that there is no authority of law for the payment of the expenses of the commissioners, Messrs. Worthington, S. S. Wright, William Perry Duke, and W. S. Gray. The attorney will be asked how it came to be that expenses of fifty land boards, one in each county, commission of 21 should be drawing.

Mr. Edgerton is known to be not fond of public appearance, and he is not much troubled. The committee will endeavor to find out the reason why the Commissioners have been allowed to draw money for the payment of the boards, and report to the House

AN EXTRA DAY'S RACING.

GOLD CHESTNUT AFTER THOROUGHLY AT WASHINGTON PARK.

A Free Day for the Favorite and a Cold One Consequently for the Bookmakers—Lady Pecks's Bad Luck in the Race for $5,000—A Side-Play Managed When a Great Race at Hempstead Was Postponed on Other Tracks—Card Notes.

The fast gelding Gil's racing at Washington Park, given permitted attraction, proved to be of a very unfavorable character, about 4,000 people were out. It was a good day for the favorite, and a few out of the seven back who were beaten, as a consequence the bookmakers were much cheerier than they had been for a few days, most of them having made money. In the match to cover the Chicago City Railway cable Track was announced to the utmost limit. The track was fast and heavy with the water at the previous day. The track was given to horse racing, the rain of Thursday afternoon having greatly benefited it.

The first race had four starters, two of them Brookfield and Harvey, representing the Doggett stable. It was conceded that the race was a gift for the stable, but both bookmakers and public were at sea as to which Mr. Doggett would try to win with. Under the rules the colt had to be ridden over distance. The fact that Anderson was on Harvey and Weather on Brookfield caused the bookmakers to assume that Brookfield was to be the winner, and would have about a 4-to-1 favorite. Before the start had been made Harvey was backed along the White line, and there was considerable excitement in the betting-ring when the horses went to the post. Harvey was the favorite at the start, and Brookfield was backed down to 2 to 1. Harvey was the favorite at the finish, and Brookfield was backed down to 2 to 1. Harvey was the favorite at the finish, and Brookfield was backed down to 2 to 1.

A VISIT TO JERSEY'S ISLE

THE QUEEN RECEIVES WITH HER FRIENDS.

It is announced that Her Majesty the Queen is to again honor the Channel Isle with a visit, and such intelligence—coupled with the announcement of the Duchesse d'Aumale that she intends to visit Jersey—has caused a flutter of excitement in the quiet little island. The duchess is to visit Jersey in October to witness Sarah Bernhardt, Mme. Modjeska, and Rossini's lion tamer exhibit at the imperial conservatoire of art in Jersey by the head of the Baron de Pinsky, Comte de Chirac, A. Lagrenée and Lessing, with chromatic contributions of the stars of St. Louis and Milan. "Now or never" is the time for our Prince to have himself as he loves and with Jersey, where sunset and sunrise are never the same. Frenchmen are ready to rejoice him from Algeria and the Nile."

Interpreters of Socialism are embarking on a campaign in Jersey under the belief that the Channel Isles is their only hope to reach an oasis in the midst of French society. The population of Jersey are chiefly Methodists of Jewish persuasion, and Socialism is becoming a fashion and young men's clubs have been formed. They call themselves Socialists and to the horror of their elders talk. It was the time of Queen Victoria's visit to the Isle of France. The captain was expert, the day was absolutely perfect, the sea was of a tranquility unknown since the Deluge would, I regret to say, prevent all those islands and islets to appear like so many emeralds. They are more or less covered with verdure and the latter is of a brilliant green. The weather continues superb. The sea is as calm as a mirror, and waves of beautiful green Jersey potato lands in the cottages in the side, hope of getting a glimpse of Her Majesty. The little Queen's yacht appeared in sight, and the Channel fleet, which was to salute her, was in readiness. Jersey, who receives charming visitors as if France possessed several islands, has never had the most distinguished visitor since Victor Hugo.

The Visitors.

From July 1.—A party of 100 Socialists went to St. Malo today to visit the tomb of Paris, and another party of 200, including the La Chevrais, will follow tomorrow. The Socialist newspapers have discussed the proposed excursion.

The Journal publishes an interview with Mr. Ernest Vaughan Davis, describing his father's abandonment as a recognizing ground for recovery to Rome by Bellevue. The conversion, in which there great influence is attributed, took place in 1845. Mr. Davis's father was then thirty-three years old and was married. Shortly after his conversion he was ordained priest by Cardinal Wiseman. He had a brilliant career before him, and was soon appointed to the Church of St. Mary of the Angels, Bayswater, London, where he officiated for many years. He died in 1878

MR. ADAMS WITHDRAWS.

HE IS TO ENTERTAIN A CANDIDATE FOR GENERAL WARNER.

What "President" Would Do Were Also Elected to Both—Adams D. Rich and George H. Hubert Nominated—Trustee Named for the County Hospital—A Few Asked Let—Routine Work for the Court Assembly.

There was a short meeting of the County Board yesterday. The fact of the board meeting was a surprise, but it was held through the grace of Judge Jamieson, who took a recess for an hour for the benefit of some of the defendants in the election case. They were all at the meeting except Chairman, and their refusal Dunkle came into with them and pleaded to be the last whom were first tried to begin. His defendant was there too, but he was not a Democrat and voted Cooper with Republicans then and other times. As both sides were afraid of delay in the matter the Cooper Warner fee matter was again put off. Mr. Dunne presided. Mr. Adams said he had a letter from Mr. Adams withdrawing the name for Warner, and moved that when the board adjourn it be to meet next Tuesday at 7 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Dolan—What is the reason for all meeting until evening?

Mr. Dunne—An explanation is not necessary.

Mr. Mcgeoghey objected, as it would be impossible for him to be present in the evening. Mr. Dolan entered his more objection, and the motion was modified to 2 o'clock. This was adopted by a full vote.

A communication was received signed by a large number of citizens and business men recommending Adams D. Rich to the position of Warden of the County Hospital. It was laid over to Tuesday in the city for twenty years and was known and capable. Referred to the Committee on Hospital.

The Committee on Jail and Criminal Courts recommended payment of bills amounting to $2,000, one of the items being $40 for "grass and marriage fee," which was for calling the panel and some parties during the Mc[illegible] trial.

Mr. Dolan—What did "grass" mean? "Book" [illegible]

Mr. Dunne—It is a usual item, but for the benefit of Mr. Dolan I will say that it is the fee charged by Bailiff [illegible] for calling the panel.

Mr. Dolan—That is a good joke, but for the benefit of the board I would like to know the particulars and therefore decline to vote.

The Finance Committee recommended that Henry Clark pay over to the clerk of the Criminal Court $1,000 collected by him as bail bond, the principal having failed to appear for trial. Mr. Dolan moved to amend by adding $1,000 more. The amendment was lost by a vote of 7 to 11, and the recommendation was adopted.

Mr. Dolan—I will agree to this as all present, and the meeting adjourned.

A DEAD ASSESS LOT.

The south Evanston School Board has recently purchased of Miss Clark in the Forest Hill for $1,000. The lot is a small one, and was owned many years ago by Mr. Clark, who was elected to the Illinois Legislature from Cook County. Mr. Clark was a member of the Chicago Union School Board, and always opposed to sell to the one of the playgrounds of our present school system. The recommendation of the School Board in reference to this lot is a fair indication that Evanston will not [illegible] to abandon, which ought to receive special consideration. This lot is not suitable for a school site in the first place. The property is too small to be used for a playground, and [illegible] being erected on less than two acres. The situation is completely ruined. A large city is a most desirable location for a playground for [illegible] Evanston, and it would be a shame to [illegible] the only property [illegible] for that purpose. The recommendation of the School Board in reference to this lot is [illegible] and should receive the support of [illegible] Evanston. [illegible] Evanston [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

—OF—

Gladstone, Michigan.

The choice of Town Lots in the Mason Estate—the finest portion of the town site—will be sold at Public Sale to the highest bidder, on July 6th, next.

Four hundred lots will be offered, singly or in quarter blocks, to suit.

Gladstone is the Lake Port of the great new Trunk Line from Minneapolis to the East—the Minneapolis & Sault Ste. Marie Railway—and will be the shipping point for the Milwaukee & Northern, and probably of the Lake Shore & Western Railway. It is bound to become the very active rival of Duluth and Ashland for all Western products. Contracts with the M., L. Ste. M. & A. Railway provide for the building up there of car shops, elevators, ore docks, and very extensive coal, flour, merchandise, and lumber docks, and the railway company are now engaged in building same as fast as men and material can be obtained. The proprietors have cleared off 65 acres for the business portion of town, and will at once grade the main business street and open up the others.

Buyers will take C. & N. W. R. R. trains to Escanaba, and Steamer Lotus to Gladstone. Sale will begin at 1 p. m.

Extracts from the address of Prof. William R. Vance of Jackson College, at the recent Babylon Seminary semi-centennial: Educators, writers, and all others in intelligent touch with our evolving future, the problem arises who are to wear crowns upon those brows? Are professional professors especially prone to form a sphere of almost unlimited women which greatly needs the services of educated women, and to which they are particularly adapted, to the exclusion of the public who have a right to them and a hand out for more by preaching and women's teaching. The talents, interests, and acquisitions of the fair world is greatly improved by a slight infusion of feminine sense and finesse. Babylon Christian spirit, and for that matter universal humanity and public interest would not be injured by a diffusion of the same spirit. How to produce a little more "womanliness" from the position now occupied by so many feminine and the great generality would be reduced, and popular affection would be reached as educated women are beginning to find a place in school boards and school committees, and to control local interests of education. The presence of cultivated Christian women in offices, and places in business is certain and gentle of kinds of business, to act more or less as a professionally for prospective of such women to gentle and firm presence to all matters of purity and propriety, especially in the conduct of criminal Christian women in business, to promote all the better of general good, and have influence for the better in the world, and to the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Bible does not limit the sphere of woman to the home, but to the home and the world, and there is no reason why she should not be a lawyer, a doctor, a minister, a professor, a statesman, a ruler, a queen, as well as a man. Deborah was a judge and a prophetess, Huldah was a prophetess, Esther was a queen, Lydia was a merchant, Priscilla was a teacher, Phebe was a deaconess, Mary Magdalene was a missionary, Dorcas was a philanthropist
